PRESIDENT’S MINUTE

No Fooling! It's really April already. It is well known that musicians love to eat and talk and play or listen to music all the time. Every TM member has the chance to fulfill all those wishes if she chooses to come to our annual luncheon on May 15, 2009.

Now is the time to fill in the enclosed information/reservation form to:

1. Pay the yearly dues of $20.00
2. Make any corrections to your Yearbook entry
3. Make your luncheon reservation for $25.00

Please fill in 1. and 2. even if you cannot come to the luncheon. Hope to see everyone there.

Ann Lekven
President

A THANK-YOU NOTE

A sincere thanks to all my friends in Tuesday Musicale who have been so supportive during our family's recent loss. Your cards and notes meant a lot to me and my family, and your presence and contributions for Henry's memorial service were deeply appreciated. Life would be less meaningful without our shared love of music. Fondly, Barbara Ebert

NEWS OF MEMBERS

Roberta Wilcox reports that the Crown City Symphony and the Second Strings have been invited to perform for the opening of the Pasadena Convention Center, 300 E. Green Street! The orchestra will play on Saturday, April 4th at 3:00 p.m. and the Second Strings on Sunday, April 5th at 1:30 p.m. Parking and admission to the Home Show and Convention Center are free on these dates. Call Roberta at 626-797-6418 for more information.

YOUNG MUSICIANS SPECIAL EVENTS

Two very important April events reflect and support the long term betterment of music in our community. Come to both events if you can.

April 19, 2009 Second Sunday Concert showcases our TM Juniors in their Spring Callie McGrath Awards Recital. These young participants had already performed for a panel of judges to win their monetary awards.

April 25, 2009 Coleman Chamber Ensemble Competition. This competition is open to the public free of charge at Caltech. You can spend all day listening to the top young artists ensemble groups from the USA and abroad compete for the annual prestigious Coleman prizes. The Winners Concert the next day features the winning groups and requires purchasing a ticket. If interested, contact TM member Sue Grether for further information.

MEETING TIME

Business Meeting – 12:30 pm
Recital – 12:45 pm
