PRESIDENT'S MINUTE

I hope that everyone is planning to enjoy fun, food, and friendship at the Annual TM Luncheon, May 15 at 12:00 Villa Garden's Villa Vista Room at 842 E. Villa Street. Reservations should be sent to our treasurer, Vicky Parian by May 8th. As you drive through the Villa Garden's front entrance driveway, a TM member will be there by 11:15 a.m. to hand you a PARKING PERMIT. This PERMIT will allow you to park at Villa Garden's or at the Lake Avenue Church parking lot just next door to the Villa. You can also park on the street. Luncheon Chairman, Betty Sirri, reports that serving will start at 12 Noon and my spies tell me that you will be able to eat a fine gourmet meal, you will be able to talk aplenty with friends, and that you will be able to listen to some very serious music – all things we music lovers love to do.

Even if you are unable to attend the luncheon, please send in your dues and your updated Yearbook information at this time. Why?, you think. Read on.

Program Chairmen Zandra Hanson and Barbara Ebert are starting to plan next season's library programs. They would like you to know that in order to be eligible to perform, TM members MUST HAVE PAID THEIR DUES AND MUST HAVE ATTENDED AT LEAST THREE SECTION MEETINGS DURING THE PREVIOUS YEAR. And, of course, to be included in the 2009-2010 Yearbook, dues must be paid up, too.

Lastly, PIANISTS ALERT – After the June 2 recital, our Piano Refurbishing project will begin. Piano B will be the first instrument to go in for repairs, followed by Piano A. Therefore, for a minimum of four months, we will have only one piano available. Hopefully, this information will be helpful when making performance plans.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone at the luncheon.

Ann Lekven
President

MAY MUSIC CALENDAR

Sunday, May 3, 3:00 p.m.: Chamber Music Section members Svetlana Oganessian, Roberta Wilcox, Ophelia Nanagyulyan and Ludina Sallam will be joined by pianist Karine Hovsepian in a concert at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, 1118 N. Allen Ave, Pasadena. The program will include music of Mozart, Beethoven, Shakarian and Haratunian. Admission is free.

Sunday, May 17, 2:30 p.m.: Opera Pasadena presents "The Magic of Mozart" – highlights from "The Magic Flute," "The Marriage of Figaro" and "Cosi fan tutte," as well as a violin and piano sonata and a piano trio, performed by TM members Ophelia Nanagyulyan, Ann Lekven Kim Ruys-dePerez and Barbara Ebert. The concert will be presented in the Recital Hall at the Pacific Asia Museum, 46 N. Los Robles Ave, Pasadena. Admission is $15 for adults, $10 for seniors. There is free parking in the lot on the north side of the museum. Call Barbara Ebert at (626) 398-0658 for more details and to make reservations. Flyers will be available at the May TM recital.

Last weekend in May: The Crown City Symphony will finish its season with three free concerts: Friday, May 29 at 7:00 p.m. at the Pasadena Central Library, Saturday, May 30, 2:00 p.m. at the Boys and Girls Club of Pasadena, 3230 E. Del Mar Blvd, and Sunday, May 31, 2:00 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Pasadena, 75 N. Marengo Ave. TM member Svetlana Oganessian will perform the Violin Concerto by Aram Khachaturian, and the program will include Schubert's Sixth Symphony and three of Dvorak's Slavonic Dances. Several of our Chamber Music Section members play in the orchestra, so plan to attend one of these programs and support your fellow musicians. Orchestra Manager Roberta Wilcox will have flyers available at the May TM recital.

NEWS OF MEMBERS

A very warm welcome to our newest "Junior" member, Everett Henderson Downie, whose proud parents, Heather Henderson (Chamber Music Section) and Mark Downie announced his arrival on April 10th.

Our congratulations and best wishes to Voice Section member Flory Kimber and her new husband, Jim Hoffman, who were married at Flory's home in Glendale on April 10th. The new Yearbook will have her updated address and phone number.

E-MAIL UPDATE

From Barbara Ebert: I recently added another e-mail address to my system, and AOL sent out a notice stating that the previous one had been replaced. NOT SO!!! Please continue to use the e-mail address in your Yearbooks. Thank you. he91001@aol.com
