HOSTESSES: THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

PRESIDENT'S MINUTE

As the Holiday Season fast approaches, we in Tuesday Musicale can feel great satisfaction as we celebrate the Season's festivities. And as we do this, we discover the pleasures of both giving and receiving. All those songs we sing have a two-way flow; all those sacred and secular works we love to play give joy to player and listener alike. Certainly many a spirit is lifted as music is heard in our community.

Just in the Pasadena area alone a quick survey of special events offers "Hansel and Gretel" performed by the Opera Pasadena on Dec. 3, 4, 5, & 6, a PYSO (Pasadena Youth Symphony Orchestra) Holiday Concert on December 8, and a Holiday Pops Concert on December 19 with the Pasadena POPS Symphony. Expand this list to surrounding areas and anyone interested should be able to find a musical treat near by.

A note of delight comes as we hear the first of our recently rebuilt and refurbished grand pianos. Our first piano was returned in late October and is being given the tender loving care it needs as it settles in. Our second piano should be back in late December. Not only are these pianos enjoyed by us at our TM sponsored recitals and Second Sunday Concerts but also by the wider musical community as piano teachers and music groups present student recitals and various programs throughout the year.

Since the auditions on November 3 we have added six new members to Tuesday Musicale. We welcome Monika Curlin, Sunday Section, Deborah Dey, Sherry Hutson, and Dabney Ross Jones to Voice Section; Deborah Erftenbeck and Geraldine Keeling to Piano Ensemble Section. A warm welcome to you all.

So, for now, we on the Tuesday Musicale Board wish everyone a wonderful Holiday Season.

Ann Lekven
President

SECOND SUNDAY CONCERT

There is no concert scheduled for December

NEWS OF MEMBERS

Opera Pasadena will present four performances of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" at McKinley Auditorium, 325 S Oak Knoll Ave, Pasadena. Dates are Thursday - Saturday, December 3 - 5 at 7 pm and Sunday, December 6 at 3 pm. New TM Voice Section member Deborah Dey will perform the role of Hansel on Thursday and Saturday evenings, and new TM Piano Ensemble member Deborah Erftenbeck will join Barbara Ebert as the duo-piano "orchestra" for the production. Music Appreciation section member Beatrice Buchman has designed the set (the Gingerbread House is a masterpiece!) and has also done the choreography for the Dream sequence with the 14 angels. Tickets are $10 for adults, $7 for seniors and $5 for students. Flyers will be available at the recital meeting on December 1st – check out the original artwork (done by Kirk Smith, whose mother Carolyn is a TM Music Appreciation member), on our web site: www.operapasadena.org Call Barbara Ebert at 626-398-0658 for reservations.
