PRESIDENT’S MINUTE

As I walked into the auditorium I could feel the mood of purpose, excitement, and anticipation. Parents and young musicians were waiting to start. TM Juniors officers were busy with last minute program preparations. The first two performers, who were auditioning, performed and waited for word of their fate. Every boy there wore a dressy shirt, slacks, and tie; every girl wore her best dress. Everyone seemed poised and confident. After all the young people had performed we, the audience as well as the performers, had experienced the TM founding purpose: “. . . to add to the musical enjoyment and knowledge of music of its members, and to promote interest in music throughout the community.” Embrace the future in this New Year of 2010 by attending the Juniors Winter Recital on January 10, 2010.

As our TM recital season unfolds, the Board would like to offer several suggestions to sharpen our stage performance.

The stage crew is there to help our performers and will gladly move stands, chairs, pianos, and music around on the stage, as well as return stands and music to the seating area.

We encourage all performers to wear longer skirts or pants since the stage is well above the audience.

Monthly Program Chairmen should expect to be available during their groups’ rehearsal time the day before the recital and available after the recital to pour tea and coffee.
