PRESIDENT'S MINUTE

Dear TM members,

Happy New Year to all!

I was thinking of all the wonderful music that was performed in December, and I thought it would be fun to find out how many of our members have regular church jobs. If I missed anyone, I'll fix it next month when I list all of you who sing in church choirs – help me on this.

Three of our members are organists in Christian Science churches: Gayane Avakian, Altadena Church; Louise Earhart, Whittier Church; and Nancy Sensenbach, Arcadia Church. Nancy also sings there as a soloist. Helen Harboyan is a soloist at First United Methodist Church of Whittier. Geraldine Keeling is the organist/pianist at the First Congregational Church of Glendale. And Ingrid Helge is a soloist at the United Church of God in Eagle Rock.

I've been listing instrumentalists who play in local symphonies. Claremont Symphony has four of our members: Emily Denney, Lori Ives, Jackie Stong and Monika Curlin.

We may have more parking meters available to us as I alerted the Parking Enforcement office of our need for street parking between 11:30 am and 2:30 pm. They will try to park elsewhere.

Two websites that I have found very helpful are: events@Goldstar.com for all kinds of events and: ExperienceLA.com. Also, for music print-outs and ordering music check: Musicnotes.com.

See www.glendalenooncercerts.blogspot.com for the January 5 (Kewa Ensemble), January 19 (Solo Cello) and February 2 (Viola, Oboe & Piano) concerts.

Hope you didn't mind this potpourri column.

Roberta Wilcox
