and installation of the new Board

Make your reservations now – twenty dollars

PRESIDENT'S MINUTE

This is a short one to make room in the NOTES for the annual luncheon information; I hope you all can come to it. I hear that some of our members are going to Cafe 322 in Sierra Madre where TM members Virginia D'Auria and Diana Briscoe sing on Sunday nights – the cafe's Opera and Broadway night. It's fun and the food is good. The group plans to go on April 10. Check with Emily Denney by April 5 if you want to join them, as reservations are a necessity.

Places you will find our members: Nancy Work sings in the choir at Church of Our Saviour in San Gabriel – she formerly sang at Lake Avenue Church. Jackie Stong plays oboe with the La Mirada Symphony. Violist Elizabeth Marino and 'cellist Barbara Von Slomski are in the Rio Hondo Symphony.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Glendale Noon Concerts: Wednesday April 6 features VIO-FONIK, a string trio that is said to sound like "Stravinsky on Vacation – jazz with a twist. April 20 has the Kewa Ensemble playing Mozart and MacMillan. The concerts are held at the First Baptist Church, 209 N. Louise St., Glendale.

Pasadena Presbyterian Church has the PCC Brass on April 6, a tenor on April 13, a trumpeter on April 20 and a flutist on April 27. The programs in Pasadena also start at noon.

Thank you, Pasadena Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota for the honor of presenting me with your Community Service Award at the March 12 Crown City Symphony concert. The March 13 symphony concert will be available on a CD for $10.

CONGRATULATIONS

To TM President Roberta Wilcox, who received the 2011 Community Service Award from the Pasadena Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, a women's professional music fraternity. This award is presented to members of the Pasadena community who have made outstanding contributions to the cultural life of the city.

To Tuesday Musicale Junior members Eric Dong, Kevin Ou, Mark K. Soong and Melodey M. Soong, who all won Second Prize in the American Protege International Piano and Strings Competition 2011, and who were invited to perform in Carnegie Hall, New York, on March 6, 2011. TMJ members Richard Dong and Lauren Li won Honorable Mention in the same competition, and will perform in Merkin Hall, New York in April 2011.

NEWS OF MEMBERS

In March, Chamber Music Section member Trudi Anderson participated with the Caltech Wind Ensemble in concerts at the Great Wall and Tsinghau University in Beijing, China. The group also visited Beijing tourist attractions and toured a jade factory and a silk factory.

On March 27th, Voice Section members Dabney Ross Jones, Carol Lande and Adrien Raynier sang with members of Opera Pasadena and Golden West Opera Theatre in an opera highlights program at the South Pasadena Library Community Room. Barbara Ebert and Allen Andrews were the accompanists.

On April 13th, Chamber Music Section member Ophelia Nanagyulyan will perform on the Wednesday noon recital series at First United Methodist Church in Santa Monica.

Voice Section member Sue Peace is recuperating from a broken shoulder. Her new address is 842 E. Villa St., #324, Pasadena 91101. Her cell phone and e-mail information is the same as in the current yearbook.
