PRESIDENT'S MINUTE

May is concert month. We have so many to choose from. Our orchestra, Crown City Symphony, has three performances in May. They are listed in the bulletin. We have switched the first two concerts so are now starting at the Armenian Church, which is great, because the Rhapsody which our member, Ophelia Nanagyulyan is playing was written by her teacher, Bagdasarian and this will be a U.S. premiere. Also on the program is an Arutiunian Concerto for Tuba, Rossini's overture to "La Gazza Ladra" and Dvorak's "Husitska Overture". Ophelia is playing beautifully so be sure to come. Also, she has made a lovely necklace with a crown on it (Crown City). We are having a silent auction and you can bid on it starting at our May 3rd meeting. Also, Bea Buchmann has again offered to donate her wonderful painting talents to CCS by giving the proceeds from her painting of an orchestra member's dog. Come and see that also. May 29, Sunday, CCS is having a benefit concert and tea at the home of Fritzie Culick. We will give you details in the next column – or by email. For a $25 donation, you will get goodies and chamber music.

On May 20 at 8:00pm The Pasadena Community Orchestra will present its Young Artist Competition Winner; de Falla's Three Cornered Hat Suite, and Holst' Jupiter from the Planets. It is at the First Church of the Nazarene. Contact Bette Solomon for more details. Mother's Day there are chamber groups in Dabney Hall, CalTech from 3:30pm on. Oh, and don't miss George Gershwin Alone at the Pasadena Playhouse. It is wonderful. Hershey Felder plays piano like a pro, sings and acts. Glendale Noon Concert series at the Baptist Church, fbcglendale.net, will feature flutist Ruth Kaskow from La Canada, and flutist Mark Frankel on May 4. Pasadena Presbyterian Church has a guitarist on May 4, Crown City Quartet on May 11, and pianists on May 18 & 25.

See you at the luncheon!

Roberta Wilcox, president
